Terms and Conditions: All course candidates must meet the course prerequisites before being booked onto a course. The full course cost is payable in full no less than 7 days prior to the course start date. Courses may be transferred to another suitable candidate, rearranged and cancelled without cost where 7 days notice is provided prior to the start of the course, thereafter an administration cost equal to 10% of the cost of the course will be due. I accept that course materials may be substituted or changed without notice, but any changes or substitutions will not affect the stated objectives of the training.
